

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Interdisciplinary Studies (<https://www.ncf.edu/departments/interdisciplinary-programs/>) programs offer students the opportunity to integrate perspectives from different academic disciplines to explore subjects of vital interest. At New College, Interdisciplinary Studies includes the following Areas of Concentration (AOCs): Animal Wellbeing and Conservation; Biopsychology; Environmental Studies; Gender Studies; Geographic Information Systems; Health, Culture, and Societies; Innovative Digital Media; International and Area Studies; Medieval and Renaissance Studies; Museum Studies; Neuroscience; Public Policy, Rhetoric and Writing; Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies; and Urban Studies.

Programs in Interdisciplinary Studies

- Animal Wellbeing and Conservation (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/animal-wellbeing-conservation/>)
- Biopsychology (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/biopsychology/>)
- Environmental Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/environmental-studies/>)
- Gender Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/gender-studies/>)
- Geographic Information Systems (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/geographic-information-systems/>)
- Health, Culture, and Societies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/health-culture-societies/>)
- Innovative Digital Media (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/innovative-digital-media/>)
- International and Area Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/international-area-studies/>)
- Medieval and Renaissance Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/medieval-renaissance-studies/>)
- Museum Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/museum-studies/>)
- Neuroscience (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/neuroscience/>)
- Public Policy (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/public-policy/>)
- Rhetoric and Writing (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/rhetoric-writing/>)
- Theater, Dance, and Performance Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/theater-dance-performance-studies/>)
- Urban Studies (<https://catalog.ncf.edu/undergraduate/interdisciplinary-studies/urban-studies/>)