STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER

The Student Success Center provides individualized peer staff and professional staff coaching to students on a wide variety of student success topics such as time management, attention management, motivation, study skills, presentation skills, developing faculty relationships, and many more. It is the mission of the Student Success Center to support students in making a successful academic transition to New College and helping them develop skills that will serve them well beyond graduation.