

UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG

This General Catalog is not a contract, either expressed or implied, between New College of Florida and the student, but represents a flexible program of the current curriculum, educational plans, offerings, and requirements that may be altered from time to time to carry out the academic, administrative, and procedural purposes and objectives of the College. The College specifically reserves the right to change, delete, or add to any provision, offering, academic curriculum, program, or requirement at any time within the student's period of study at the College. Typically, new policies and requirements take effect with the fall term of the academic year.

Students are expected to meet all requirements as stated in the Catalog at their time of admission.

For all information pertaining to the graduate program, please refer to the Graduate Catalog. The Graduate Catalog, updated annually prior to the start of each academic year, is a comprehensive document that details the policies and procedures of the graduate program. Information provided in the Graduate Catalog includes, but is not limited to, administrative structure, committee appointments, graduate admissions requirements, academic regulations, course descriptions, and degree requirements.
